Another LETTER to the PEOPLE.

Jocerne Tecum per literas? civem Herbercule non pute esse, qui his temporibus ridere possit. Ita sunt omnia debilitata jam prope & extincta. CICERO.

IF the Gorgon Head of Place or Pension should endeavour to turn your Hearts into Stone---if, like Prometheus, chained to a Rock, by a superior Power, for the Vultures of Dependance to prey upon your Vitals---it should be declared, ye were "enjoying all the Blessings of Life," and lying at your Ease on a Bed of Roses, would not the cruel Insult add to your Pangs? If another, with less Subtlety than the Serpent, yet, like that Reptile, should endeavour to transfuse his Poison among ye, to the utter Ruin of his native Land---if a third, who acknowledges a Deficiency of Understanding, and Belief to credit those Facts on which your Resolutions are founded, and, with an Attempt to Wit, stigmatizes it with the Title of "political Creed;" I say, when ye see these Things, does it not astonish ye full as much, as the Folly of those, whose Arrogance led them to scale the very Heavens?

However, I write not to convince such Men of their Folly. Want of Abilities is not to be remedied: It is an Error not to be corrected: Like Newton's Gravitation in Matter, it can produce nothing (like Impotence in Nature) but ill-shaped Monsters. Monro would have undertaken to recover the Senses of a Madman, but he would have pronounced this Disease of the Mind incurable.

If any one shall think proper, in Answer to any Thing I may advance, to gather the Flowers of the Fish-Market, to adorn his Productions; if he shall assume to himself the Privilege of Watermen and Oyster-Women; in God's Name, let him enjoy it, in his own good Company, exclusively of all other Persons. He can cause no Scandal; he can give no Offence; he can raise no Sentiment but Pity, in the Breast of him that he attacks; and every Thing of this Nature, shall be passed over, without a single Reflection.

The Plan which is now adopted, has the Concurrence of every respectable Colony in America. Ye have the Happiness to find those Men, who have endeared themselves to ye, by a steady Conduct in the Defence of their Country, taking the Lead likewise in this Affair: And shall the blunted Arrows of a few Individuals, stagger ye from the Pursuit of the ONLY remaining Scheme, for the Security of your BIRTHRIGHT.

Your REPRESENTATIVES have done their utmost. The Completion of these Resolutions will depend on the Virtue of Individuals: Every Man has now an Opportunity of exerting that Virtue. Let not then smooth-faced Plausibility, fawning Self-Interest, coward Doubt, or insinuating Hypocrisy under the Mask of Prudence, lead ye into eternal Infamy, attended with eternal Misery.

The Rights of America have often been declared to the Public: Repeated Strokes on the Anvil, tempers the Metal: They cannot be too often mentioned.

However extensive the Power of P--------t may be over the Colonies, the BILL OF RIGHTS and ACT OF SETTLEMENT, which are founded on your former Rights in MAGNA CHARTA, are considered as the essential Authority by which P--------ts exist: By these, all succeeding P--------ts, and all succeeding Ministers are to be directed for EVER: They cannot be abrogated to enslave a free People; and unless some Power exists in a free State superior to that of a H---e of C-----s, and which no Power can destroy, the Idea of a Constitution is no more, which is directly contrary to the original Notion of Freedom. And although an absolute Power is lodged in every free State, to be used on Emergencies, yet it cannot be construed, to do Injustice, and fetter Mankind: This Power would contradict every Idea of Liberty; it would be exceeding those Laws of Equity by which God Almighty is bound; it would be legally investing the L------ture with Authority to treat your Liberties as they please; it would be placing those gigantic Powers, which JAMES exercised, in their Hands; and the only Ends of the Revolution would be, to fix, in the P--------t, a Right of subverting the Constitution, which has been denied to every Sovereign who has made the Attempt.

POWER, my dear Countrymen! and AUTHORITY, are different Things. POWER is absolute Force; by which a Body of Men, without any Regard to Right, can, by any Means, accomplish their Designs. But, AUTHORITY is that, by which Men are limited to do, by the Nature of a free Constitution.

Now, take a Survey of your present Situation, and judge, whether your desperate Circumstances arise from Power, or Authority.

Ye have an absolute Command over your Purses; and ye are intitled to the same Protection of your Persons and the same Recourse to Courts, established for the Preservation of both, as an ENGLISHMAN in the Metropolis. These Rights the Constitution has given ye; in these it defends ye.

Your present Situation, taken in one View, is this. At a Time that your public Credit is as good as the Bank of England,---ye are restrained from making Paper Money a lawful Tender.---By other Resolutions, ye are prevented from the usual Supplies of Gold and Silver, which in some Measure, would have provided against that Hardship---By several Acts, Duties laid on the most necessary Articles you import, to extort Money from your Pockets, for the Maintainance of a Set of Harpies, let loose among ye, to destroy your Trade, and harrass ye to Death.---There must be other Duties, thick and three-fold, before a Revenue can be raised, to support the Expences of Government------ Powers given to a Board of Commissioners, under which the honest Merchant must sink, and under which your Houses are liable to be ransacked by the Ruffian Insolence of a Set of Men, who have ever been held in Detestation----These Duties to be paid in Silver, which will carry every solitary straggling Piece of that Metal over the Atlantic, like Ghosts over the Stygian Lake, never to return---A Court of Admiralty, almost equally oppressive to the Innocent, as terrible to Guilt, established for the Determination of your Property; to the Destruction of JURIES, a Mode of Trial which has distinguished ye from all the Nations of the Earth----A Stop put to the Right of Representation; so as to leave one Half of a Country, equal in Extent to England, unrepresented---And lest ye should think and act like Men subject to the Feelings of Nature, a military Force sent, under, some Pretence or other, into every trading Town of Consequence, to awe and terrify ye into servile Submission---Requisitions demanded for their Support; which, in Fact, is laying a Foundation for a military Establishment---Your Assemblies dissolved, for asserting your Rights---And, to complete the Scene, an Act of Parliament recommended to Majesty, by which EVERY Man, who shall dare to write or speak against such nefarious Measures, is liable to be DRAGGED from his NATIVE Country, to be tried by a C. J. who has got a great deal of that Disposition, which, in Scripture, is called DEVILISH.

Thus tortured, in Body, Soul, and Purse, could NIC MACHIAVEL, from the Infernality of whose Politics Satan himself obtained the Name of OLD NICK, have invented a Plan on a broader Bottom, for the total Eradication of every Trace of Liberty? And can ye consider those Men as FRIENDS to you, to Virtue, to Liberty, who shall write with a palpable Design to render abortive the ONLY MEASURE which can SAVE ye, from a Ruin equal to the Earthquake at Lisbon, shaking every Thing to the Foundation.

[To be continued, or concluded, in our next.]

From the LONDON CHRONICLE, June 13.

To the PRINTER.

SIR,

THE Duke of G's friends, not finding it convenient to enter into a conteſt with JUNIUS, are now reduced to the laſt melancholy reſource of defeated argument, the flat general charge of ſcurrility and falſehood. As for his ſtile, I ſhall leave it to the critics. The truth of his facts are of more importance to the public. They are of ſuch a nature, that I think a bare contradiction will have no weight with any man, who judges for himſelf. Let us take them in the order in which they appear in his laſt letter.

1. Have not the firſt rights of the people, and the firſt principles of the conſtitution, been openly invaded, and the very name of an election made ridiculous by the arbitrary appointment of Mr. L------l?

2. Did not the Duke of G. frequently lead his miſtreſs into public, and even place her at the head of his table, as if he had pulled down an ancient temple of Venus, and could bury all decency and ſhame under the ruins?---Is this the man who dares to talk of Mr. Wilkes's morals?

3. Is not the character of his preſumptive anceſtors as ſtrongly marked in him, as if he had deſcended from them in a direct legitimate line? The idea of his death is only prophetic; and what is prophecy but a narrative preceding the fact, which may be hiſtory to-morrow.

4. Was not Lord Chatham the firſt who raiſed him to the rank and poſt of a Miniſter, and the firſt whom he abandoned?

5. Did he not join with Lord Rockingham, and betray him?

6. Was he not the boſom friend of Mr. Wilkes, whom he now purſues to deſtruction?

7. Did he not take his degrees with credit in Newmarket, White's, and the Oppoſition?

8. After deſerting Lord Chatham's principles, and ſacrificing his friendſhip, is he not cloſely united with a ſet of men, who, though they have occaſionally joined with all parties, have, in every different ſituation, and at all times, been equally and conſtantly deteſted by this country?

9. Has not Sir J. M. a penſion of 500l. a year?---This may, probably, be an acquittance of favours upon the turf; but is it poſſible for a Miniſter to offer a groſſer outrage to a nation, which has ſo very lately cleared away the civil liſt, at the expence of more than half a million?

10. Is there any one mode of thinking or acting with reſpect to America, which the D. of G. has not ſucceſſively adopted and abandoned?

11. Is there not a ſingular mark of ſhame ſet upon this man, who has ſo little delicacy and feeling as to ſubmit to the opprobrium of marrying a near relation of one who had debauched his wife?---In the name of decency, how are theſe amiable couſins to meet at their uncle's table?---It will be a ſcene in OEdipus, without the diſtreſs.---Is it wealth, or wit, or beauty,---or is the amorous youth in love?

The reſt is notorious. That Corſica has been ſacrificed to the French: That in ſome inſtances the laws have been ſcandalouſly relaxed, and in others daringly violated; and that the King's ſubjects have been called upon to aſſure him of their fidelity, in ſpite of the meaſures of his ſervants.

A writer, who builds his arguments upon facts, ſuch as theſe, is not eaſily to be confuted. He is not to be anſwered by general aſſertions, or general reproaches. He may want eloquence to amuſe or perſuade, but, ſpeaking truth, he muſt always convince.

PHILO JUNIUS.

Although the Ruſſian and Turkiſh armies took the field early in the ſpring, we do not meet with certain accounts of any operations of note before the following, viz.

FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

PETERSBURGH, APRIL 28, O. S.

BRIGADIER JADRESS having drawn together, in the fortreſs of St. Demetrius, the corps which was deſtined for the attack of the fortreſs of Tahan Roke, ſituated at the mouth of the river Don, on the ſea of Azoff, he marched out from thence, with a proper number of engineers, the 31ſt of March, arrived at Tahan Roke the 2d of April, and took poſſeſſion of that fortreſs in military form. After he had entered the place, divine ſervice was celebrated, attended by a general diſcharge of the artillery, &c. to return thanks to the Almighty for giving this important fortreſs again into our hands, and that too without the leaſt obſtacle; and after centinels were every where placed, and the artillery properly planted, the ſtandard with the Ruſſian imperial arms, was fixed upon the high wall towards the ſea, and the ſide of Crimea.

MAY 1, O. S.

By the laſt advice received from Prince de Galitzin, the commander in chief over the grand army, we learn, that he had paſſed the river Dnieſter on the 15th of April; and that during the time of the army croſſing the river, the Turks, and moſt of the inhabitants thereabouts, retired to Choczim, but thoſe who remained in their habitations, found themſelves involved in ruin. Upon this occaſion, General Prince de Galitzin did not fail to appropriate to the uſe of the army the horſes and cattle, of which he found a ſufficient number in the fields, directing his march towards Choczim, and took poſſeſſion of the enemy's camp before that place on the 19th of April. He ſent his adjutant-general, prince Proſorowſki, with the following conciſe, but agreeable account to her imperial Majeſty, of the victory obtained over the enemy.

"Moſt gracious Sovereign, I have the honour, by this to inform your imperial Majeſty, in haſte, of the victory obtained this day over the enemy, by the aſſiſtance of the Almighty, and the good fortune of your Majeſty. The Turkiſh army, under the command of Carman Baſha, who came lately from the Don, notwithſtanding his advantageous ſituation under the cannon of the fortreſs of Choczim, has been attacked and defeated: part of the enemy was driven into Choczim, and the remainder diſperſed, and the whole camp of the enemy taken. The particulars of this whole affair I will not fail to communicate ſpeedily: And am, &c."

Beſides this conciſe account, diſpatched from the camp of the enemy, the ſaid Adjutant-General has informed us, by word of mouth, that after the whole corps had paſſed the River Dnieſter, frequent ſkirmiſhes happened with the cavalry of the enemy, diſpatched from under Choczim, and our light troops, who conſtantly put them to the rout: that on (Good Friday) the 17th of April, a Turkiſh party advanced, which conſiſted of 5000 men, but was repulſed by major-general prince de Proſorowſki, who commanded the van-guard: that on the next day the whole army encamped about half a mile from Choczim, and beat the tatoo, which they accompanied with one diſcharge of the heavy artillery, and paſſed the night without any diſturbance from the enemy, who actually conſiſted of 30,000 Turks, with about 20,000 of other different troops, and remained that night quietly in their entrenchments under the cannon of Choczim.

On the 19th of April, that is, on Eaſter-day (according to the Greek church) after divine ſervice was ended, as the Lent was now over, the whole army regaled themſelves, and afterwards marched out of the camp to attack the enemy; when as ſoon as they perceived our army in order of battle, they fell upon our right wing with their whole cavalry. The captain of the artillery, who defended that wing by a battery, immediatly ceaſed firing, and waited till the enemy approached within muſket ſhot, and then gave them two vollies, which routed them in ſuch a manner, that their whole army, with the Janiſſaries, and other troops which were in the intrenchments, were not able to ſtand one fire more from our cannon, but diſperſed themſelves different ways, and ſome threw themſelves into Choczim, after leaving to the conquerors all their camp as a booty, from which the Adjutant-General was diſpatched. Major-General Iſmyloff was ſent in purſuit of the fugitives, who had ſent in many priſoners; and a battery was raiſed againſt the fortreſs of Choczim, from which a bombardment was begun, before the Adjutant-General left the army.

MAY 12.

We have juſt received the important news, that a part of our army having repaſſed the Nieſter, attacked the Turks a ſecond Time, and entirely routed them; 7000 of the enemy were left dead upon the field of battle, and we have taken 5000 priſoners, beſides the important fortreſs of Choczim, in which we found great quanties of ammunition and proviſions. The Imperial army, when the diſpatches came away, were in full march to attack Jaſſy, the capital of Moldavia.---Peterſburgh Gazette.

LONDON, JUNE 8.

A Shrewd politician was aſked, the other day, by a certain patriotic nobleman, why the Germans were generally foremoſt to begin, and the laſt to end a continental war? "My Lord (ſaid the politician) if the Germans ſcattered their gold, and we fought for bread, the balance of power would ſoon be ſettled by thoſe whom it concerns."

JUNE 13.

We hear, that a great number of ſeamen are ordered to be ſent out from Portſmouth, on board two tranſports, to reinforce the crews of his Majeſty's ſhips of war on the North-American ſtation.

JUNE 14.

Some letters from Turin mention, that a treaty is now on the carpet between his Britannick Majeſty and the King of Sardinia.

Several perſons have refuſed to compromiſe their demands on a popular Gentleman, rather chuſing to wait the iſſue of a verdict that is generally expected to be very large againſt a noble E--l, than to give diſcharges in full of their debts, on a compoſition, at preſent.

JUNE 16.

They write from Venice of the 10th of May, that the ſenate has ſuppreſſed the Carthuſians of Belluno and Padua. A yearly penſion is aſſigned to each Monk, and they are forbid to take in any novices; that the reformers of the ſchools of Padua have been commiſſioned to examine into the ſtate of the colleges belonging to the Jeſuits, and the doctrine taught by them, and to inform the government thereof; from which, it is conjectured, they will find ſufficient reaſons for an expulſion.

The miniſtry have received a letter from Governor Bernard, which greatly embarraſſes their councils; and it is now talked that they will be obliged to recall that wrong-headed, miſ-ruling ruler.

JUNE 17.

Yeſterday the Hon. Mr. Howard, the Hon. Mr. King, Sir George Colebrooke, Sir Joſeph Mawbey, Mr. Scawen, Mr. Joſeph Martin, Mr. Fuller, and many other Gentlemen, Freeholders of the county of Surry, dined at the St. Alban's Tavern, St. Alban's-ſtreet, when a general Meeting was agreed upon, to be held for the ſaid county, on Monday the 26th inſt. at Epſom, to conſider of the beſt conſtitutional meaſures to be taken in ſupport of the right of election; and the following Gentlemen were appointed a committee to prepare proper matters to be offered on that occaſion:

The Hon. T. Howard	Robert Scawen, Eſq;
The Hon. Peter King	Joſeph Martin, Eſq;
The Hon. C. Howard	Anthony Chapman, Eſq;
Sir Anthony Abdy	William Gill, Eſq;
Sir George Colebrooke	William Ellis, Eſq;
Sir Joſeph Mawbey	Ph. C. Webb, jun. Eſq.

A political writer aſſerts, That "the plan for ſettling the affairs of the colonies upon the moſt equitable footing, and for reſtoring that harmony, which the fooliſh behaviour of former miniſters had diſturbed, is nearly finiſhed. A ſcheme for ſecuring to Britain the whole of the beneficial commerce with Africa is far advanced, and internal regulations for augmenting the revenue without additional taxes, or diſtreſſing the ſubject, are under the ſerious conſideration of the proper boards.

"Particular attention (ſays he) is paid to every motion at foreign courts. The views of the ſeveral powers are known, and they are found to have no intention to break the tranquillity of Europe.

"The preſent ſtate of our finances, the good condition of our army and navy are well known to the courts of Spain and France, and they have no inclination to renew a conteſt in which they lately ſuffered ſo much. A pacific diſpoſition prevails among them from the beſt cauſe in the world, their fear of our ſtrength."

We are confidently aſſured that the brave Paſchal Paoli has received ſeveral invitations to come over to England; and that a great man who is a ſtaunch friend to liberty, has offered him the uſe of his houſe, with a handſome ſettlement the remainder of his life.

JUNE 19.

Letters from Paris by the laſt mail mention, that orders had been ſent to Breſt and Rochfort, for fitting out different ſquadrons in each of thoſe ports, the deſtination of which was not known.

JUNE 20.

Many betts were laid Yeſterday at Lloyd's and many other Coffee houſes, that the Corſican chief would be in England in ſix weeks time, and before three o'clock they were done at Two to One.

In whatever country the unfortunate Paoli may hereafter take up his reſidence, he need be under no apprehenſion of the power of France, concerning the ſafety of his perſon. For he can by no means be deemed a rebel againſt the Crown of France, having never acknowledged allegiance to the French monarch, or allowed of his ſovereignty over Corſica.

The troops of the electorate of Hanover have been all drawn up and exerciſed very frequently. His Pruſſian Majeſty's forces have done the ſame, and the Dutch have likewiſe formed a camp, and are exerciſing their troops. Do not all theſe motions, excluſive of the military preparations making in Denmark, Sweden, and other parts of the North, to ſay nothing of what is doing in France, indicate an approaching rupture among the powers of Europe?

Several Freeholders of the counties of York and Eſſex, as well as Surry, have had meetings, to conſider of the proper methods of ſupporting the right of election to the people.

On Saturday the cauſe between Sir Charles and Lady Sarah B--------y came on at Doctors Commons, before Doctor Betteſworth; when the divorce was decreed for Sir Charles.

A lady of great diſtinction falling in love with a young Clergyman as he was preaching in a church not far from St. James's on Sunday laſt, ſhe communicated the affair to her father, his G----- of ------, and he ſent for the young gentleman, who proves to be a well-diſpoſed man, of an excellent character and good family. The affair was taken into conſideration, and determined upon on Monday; and, it is ſaid, they are to be married in a few days.

JUNE 22.

We hear that petitions from all the manufacturing towns in the kingdom, on the deplorable decay of our trade and foreign commerce, are preparing to be laid before a great perſonage.

A gentleman who has been pretty accurate in his remarks, informs us, that upwards of twenty three thouſand houſes have been built within this city and its environs in the laſt three years.

It appears from the accounts delivered in of Mr. Wilkes's debts, that of 17,400l. 10,130l. are ſecurities which that Gentleman entered into for ſeveral of his friends.

It is ſaid by the politicians, that ſome ſtep will certainly be taken by three great powers to ſtop or retard the progreſs of the arms of Ruſſia againſt the Turks; as otherwiſe ſuch an aggrandizement of their power would in leſs than a quarter of a century inevitably enable the Ruſſians to give laws to Europe.

By the Bruſſels gazette which arrived this day, we learn from Corſica, that the Pieves are daily ſubmitting to the French army; the officers of which expreſs their ſurprize that the war in that iſland ſhould be ſo ſhortly terminated, as they declare, with a very few men, from the natural ſtrength of the country, it might have been defended foot by foot.

JUNE 26.

After the members for the city had ſpoken on Saturday laſt, at Guildhall, a motion was made, and unanimouſly approved of, to return thanks to the Lord Mayor, for his great candour and impartiality on the occaſion; for which, my Lord afterwards very politely thanked them, by aſſuring them, that he would, to the beſt of his power, finiſh as he had begun his office, with juſtice and impartiality. The buſineſs of the day was then adjourned, which, during a courſe of four hours, and an unexampled number of Liverymen, was conducted with the greateſt ſpirit, order, and unanimity.

It is ſaid, by thoſe who pretend to know, that the petition of the Livery of London was written by Michael Lovell, Eſq; a Merchant of this city, who waited on the Lord Mayor to requeſt a Common Hall.

AMERICAN AFFAIRS.

BOSTON, JULY 31.

At a Meeting of the Merchants and Traders of the Town of BOSTON, July 26, 1769.

IT being repreſented by divers perſons who had received late intelligence from London, that the miniſtry had acquainted the merchants there, that all the acts impoſing duties on goods imported into the colonies for the purpoſe of raiſing a revenue in America ſhould be repealed next ſeſſion of parliament, and that they had deſired them to write their friends to that purpoſe: and it appearing by Lord Hillſborough's letter to Governor Bernard that nothing more is intended than to take off the duties on glaſs, paper and colours, as being contrary to the principles of commerce.

Voted unanimouſly, that the taking off the duties on thoſe articles will by no means relieve the trade from the difficulties it at preſent labours under; and we apprehend is a meaſure intended only to quiet the manufacturers in Great-Britain, and prevent the ſetting up thoſe manufactures in the colonies; therefore

1ſt. Voted, that we will ſtrictly adhere to the agreement entered into in Auguſt laſt, and ſend no orders for any goods contrary to ſaid agreement, unleſs the revenue acts are repealed; except ſheet-Copper, German ſteel, powder, wool-combs, clothiers ſheers, tin-plates, drugs and medicines, dye ſtuffs, ſchool-books, brimſtone, chalk, allum, copperas and grindſtones; which articles, we apprehend may be imported without in any meaſure interfering with the true end and deſign of ſaid agreement.

2dly. Voted, that we will not give any countenance, ſupport or encouragement to any maſter of veſſel, who ſhall at any time hereafter until the revenue-acts are repealed, lade or take on board the veſſel of which he is maſter, at any port in Great-Britain, any goods, wares or merchandize whatever, except ſuch goods as are allowed to be imported here by the agreement aforeſaid.

3dly. Voted, that we will not give any encouragement nor ſuffer our goods in future to come on board any veſſel or veſſels belonging to gentlemen in this or any other ſea-port town within the province, unleſs they do give the maſter or maſters of their veſſels direct and poſitive orders in writing not to lade or take on board their veſſels any goods whatever except ſuch as are by the above-mentioned agreement allowed to be imported.

4thly. We further agree that ſhould any goods, wares, merchandize (ſave ſuch goods as are above excepted) being conſigned to us for ſale or ſent to us contrary to order by any veſſel or veſſels whatever, we will not receive ſuch goods, nor pay the freight of them.

5thly. Whereas divers perſons who are now bound for Great-Britain, and others who may ſail for thoſe parts the enſuing fall, may apprehend that while they are out of the province they ſhall not be held to the late agreement for non-importation:

Voted, that in caſe any ſuch perſon or perſons ſhould ſhip any goods for this port, until they have advice that the merchants and traders in general in this town have agreed to import, it ſhall be deemed a breach of their agreement, and their names ſhould be publiſhed to the world, and all other perſons reſiding here who ſhall import any kind of goods contrary to the true intent of the ſaid agreement, ſhall be treated in like manner.

And it is expected that if any perſon or perſons have through inattention ſent conditional orders for goods that they immediately countermand the ſame.

Voted, that Mr. William Bowes, Mr. Jonathan Amory, Capt. Samuel Partridge, Mr. Samuel Abbott, Mr. Thomas Walley, Mr. Moſes Gill, Mr. William Bant, Mr. Bartholomew Kneeland, Mr. Joſhua Gardner, Mr. Thomas Brattle, Mr. Edward Church, and Mr. Samuel Saliſbury, be a committee to procure a ſubſcription of the inhabitants of this town not to purchaſe any goods of ſuch perſons as have or may import any goods from Great-Britain, contrary to the late agreement of the merchants; and that the names of ſuch importers ſhall be inſerted in the public prints by ſaid committee.

Voted, that Capt. Partridge, Capt. Daſhwood, Capt. Bradford, Capt. Waldo, and Capt. Matchet, be a committee to inſpect manifeſts of the cargoes of any veſſels that may arrive from Great-Britain between this time and the firſt of January next, and make the moſt ſtrict enquiry whether any perſon or perſons have imported any articles contrary to the agreement aforeſaid, and inſert the names of ſuch importers, if any there ſhall be, in the public prints, unleſs they will immediately deliver ſaid goods into the hands of the ſtanding committee of the merchants.

Voted that Arnold Welles, Eſq; Mr. Henderſon Inches, Mr. William Dennie, Mr. William Moullineaux, and Mr. Iſaac Smith, be a committee to prepare a ſtate of the embarraſſments and difficulties the trade labours under, by means of the late regulations and revenue acts; and alſo a true repreſentation of the conduct of the commiſſioners and other officers of the cuſtoms, and lay the ſame before the merchants at their next meeting.

His Excellency Sir Francis Bernard, Baronet of Nettleham in Lincolnſhire, Old-England, ſails for London the firſt fair wind. ---NOTE, Nettleham is a poor obſcure little village, about as far from the city of Lincoln, as the Baronet's Tom Trott of a country houſe at Jamaica-pond is from Boſton. The people at Nettleham ſubſiſt chiefly by carrying garden ſtuff to Lincoln: Here, it may be preſumed, the Baronet learnt the little he knows of gardening; but that he ſhould ſet himſelf up for an architect and politician, is altogether unaccountable.

Tueſday laſt his Majeſty's 64th regiment went from this town, and embarked on board his Majeſty's ſhip Romney, of 50 guns, and the Viper Sloop, deſtined for Nova-Scotia.

Thurſday ſailed the Romney, on board of which is Commodore HOOD, with his family, for Halifax.

Remains in harbour, the Rippon man of war, of 60 guns, the Roſe of 28 guns, and ſeveral armed Scooners.

'Tis ſaid that Sir GEORGE CORNWALL who was in this town laſt winter incog. has been travelling Southward, and made many very uſeful obſervations, for miniſtry---That he has had a free conference with a ſenſible old gentleman at New-York, which is preparing for the public, in a dialogue calculated for that meridian---We hope to see his travels through the continent, published at large in South-Carolina, before he takes his departure from that place; to confront Sir Peter at the Cockpit.

PHILADELPHIA, AUGUST 3.

Last Saturday morning the Brig Speedwell, Capt. Strickland, arrived here from Liverpoole, which place she left the 25th of May. It being reported she had dry goods for several merchants, contrary to the agreement of non-importation, the committee immediately met, when, by the manifest of the cargo, which was laid before them, as well as by the report of the committee of inspection, it appeared, besides the enumerated articles, as coal, tail duck, &c. there were very few goods on board, and these chiefly the remains of orders, that had been forwarded to the inland parts of Great-Britain, last summer and fall, and provided and sent to Liverpoole before the countermanding orders got to hand: But, as they were shipped contrary to the letter of the agreement, the gentlemen to whom they belonged, readily agreed to put them into a public store, there to lie till the acts against America are repealed.

Yesterday the merchants and traders of this city met at the Coffee-House, to re-consider that part of their agreement relating to goods sent from Great-Britain on consignment to be sold here; and to determine what should be done with them, whether they were to be stored as other goods, or to be sent back; and farther to consider what is to be done with goods ordered after the agreement, when it was Unanimously Resolved, That the committee shall not be at liberty to receive and store any goods, consigned after the agreement of the merchants and traders here, not to import, was known in Great-Britain; nor such as were ordered after the 6th of February last.

Unanimously Resolved, That if any person shall receive goods consigned from Great-Britain, and shipped after the agreement of the merchants and traders here, not to import, was generally known there, or who shall assist in landing, storing, or selling them; and every person who has ordered or shall order goods from Great-Britain after the 6th of February, unless with a condition, not to ship them, until the late revenue acts against America are repealed, shall be deemed an enemy to the liberties of America, and the printers shall be justified in publishing his name.

John Hughes, late Stamp-Master of this province is appointed Collector of the port of Piscataqua, in consequence of which he had a long conference with the Inspector-General last week, and we hear he sets off for that place in a short time. Now all the late Stamp-Masters, except Z. H----d, who used their influence to enslave this country, are provided for by a ------ M-n--try.

As some of our more distant readers may be desirous of knowing what became of the load of mulr, mentioned in our paper of the 20th instant, and that piece of intelligence having, through hurry of business, been forgot last week, we would now, though late, inform them, that the brig, after having received her repairs, sailed on Tuesday the 25th ult. for Cork, without discharging the least part of her cargo whatever.

WILLIAMSBURG, (in Virginia,) AUGUST 10.

We can assure the public, that his Excellency the Governor has received a letter from Lord Hillsborough, acquainting him, that his Majesty and his Ministers would use their utmost endeavours, at the opening of the next session of parliament, to obtain a repeal of all the American revenue acts.

Immediately upon receiving this agreeable intelligence, his Excellency thought proper to call a council, which accordingly was held on Tuesday, at their chamber in the Capitol; and, with their advice, has ordered writs for summoning a new assembly, that will be issued next Monday. It is said, however, they will not meet until some time in November.

SAVANNAH, (in Georgia) AUGUST 23.

AS Advice has been received, that the Address of the Commons House of Assembly of this Province, of the 14th Day of December last, to Our Most Gracious Sovereign, has been, by the Agent, delivered to the Secretary of State for America, to be presented to his Majesty, it is thought not improper now to publish it.

TO THE KING'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

The humble ADDRESS of the Commons House of Assembly of the Province of GEORGIA.

MOST GRACIOUS SOVEREIGN,

YOUR dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons House of Assembly of Georgia, with the greatest humility, beg leave to represent to your sacred person, the grievances this province labours under, by the late acts of parliament of Great-Britain, for raising a Revenue in America. Equally attached by interest, principle, and affection, for our mother-country, we readily acknowledge a constitutional subordination to its supreme legislature; at the same time, with inexpressible concern, we must lament, that, by their imposition of internal taxes, we are deprived of the privilege, which, with humble deference, we apprehend to be our indubitable right, that of granting away our own property, and are thereby prevented from a ready compliance with any requisition your Majesty may graciously please to make, and which, to the utmost extent of our small abilities, we have always most chearfully obeyed.

From your Majesty's equity, wisdom, and paternal regard for the rights and liberties of your subjects, however remote, we flatter ourselves with, and firmly rely upon redress in this our unhappy situation. And, as we of this province experience your Majesty's particular countenance and protection, in our present infant state, for which we are impressed with the deepest sense of gratitude, so we most fervently hope, and doubt not, we shall also experience, in general with our sister colonies, on this occasion, fresh marks of your Majesty's royal justice and attention to supplications of your distressed subjects.

We beg leave to assure your Majesty, that none of your numerous subjects can, or do more ardently wish and pray for, a continuance of your most auspicious reign, and that your latest posterity may happily rule over a free, grateful, and loyal people, throughout your wide extended empire, than your faithful Commons of Georgia. By Order of the House.

N. W. JONES, Speaker.

Commons House of Assembly, 24th December, 1769.

The Brigantine Prince George, Capt. Martin, from London for St. Augustine, was lost about seventeen days ago in the night upon a reef about ten miles to the Northward of that bar. We are the vessel and cargo are entirely lost.

The Ship Lion, Capt. Irvine, belonging to London, having on board about 450 hogsheads of sugar, was cast away the 13th of last month, on Arrikabas reef on the North side of Jamaica.

CHARLES-TOWN, SEPTEMBER 7.

AT a General Meeting of the Inhabitants on Friday last, under LIBERTY-TREE, it was DETERMINED, That the General Resolutions of the 22d of July last, should be most strictly adhered to, and left to the General Committee to take every necessary and justifiable Step for preventing the least Deviation therefrom; some other Matters of a general Concern was also left to that Committee.---A Return was at the same Time made, of the Town Inhabitants that had subscribed to the Resolutions, and it appearing that some few Names were still wanting, it was RESOLVED, That the Subscription should continue open 'till this Day; and then, if there should remain any Non-Subscribers, that their Names should be made publicly known.---The Committee met on Monday, and gave public Notice of the last Resolution: Yesterday they met again, and after going thro' some necessary Business, adjourned to the first Tuesday in October next.

On Tuesday last, his Majesty's 21st Regiment, at present under the Command of Lieut. Col. Maxwell, embarked on board the Transports taken up to carry them to St. Augustine. The Conduct of the Officers and Men of this Regiment, would, in other Times, have endeared them to the Inhabitants of this Province.

The Comet mentioned in our last is still to be seen, the extreme Length of its Tail rendered its Appearance very beautiful last Night, and it continued perceptible to the naked Eye, within Half an Hour of the Sun's rising this Morning.

" As an Account of the Origin of the primative Inhabitants " of this vast Continent, and an History of those numerous and " warlike Tribes of Indians, situated to the Westward of " Charles-Town, are Subjects, hitherto, unattempted by any " Pen: And, as a Design of this Kind, must be of the most " useful and entertaining Nature, it would, undoubtedly, be " greatly encouraged, by every Gentleman of Learning, Taste, " Curiosity, or public Spirit, in this Province; Such an Attempt " has been lately made, by Mr. JAMES ADAIR, a Gentleman, who has been conversant among the Cherokees, " Chickesaws, Choctaws, &c. for Thirty-three Years past; and " who, by the Assistance of a liberal Education, a long Experience among them, and a Genius naturally formed for " curious Enquiries, has written Essays on their Origin, Languages, Religions, Customs, Methods of making War, and " Peace, &c. He has taken uncommon Pains, in comparing " their Languages and Customs, with those of the Orientalists; " and has made many useful Observations, relative to the Advantages of trading with them, and the Methods of conciliating their Affections and Friendship. His Performances have " been warmly recommended by the Colleges of New-York and " Philadelphia, and patronized by most of the Learned to the " Northward: And, as the Subjects are of the most interesting " Nature to the Inhabitants of this Province in particular, who " have the most intimate Connections with those Tribes, it is " expected that this Work will meet with the greatest Encouragement from them. The Author intends to embark for " England soon, in order to print the above Work; and Proposals for Subscriptions will soon be published."

Gooſe-Creek, Auguſt 28*th*, 1769.

RUN AWAY from the Subſcriber, about a Fortnight ago, a Negro Fellow named PETER, a ſhort, well-ſet black Fellow, about 30 Years of Age, formerly the Property Thomas Sumpter, of Santee, where he is ſuppoſed to be gone; he had on when he went away, an old Negro Cloth Jacket, and red Breeches, and his Blanket. And Yeſterday, a Muſtee Wench named MARIA, formerly the Property of Samuel Samways, of James-Iſland, and is well known in Town and on James-Iſland, where ſhe is ſuppoſed to be harboured; ſhe carried all her Cloaths with her. And this Day alſo ran away, a Negro Fellow, named PRINCE, formerly the Property of Mrs. Sarah Ward, who paſſed in ſeveral Places (where he was not known) for a free Man ſome Time ago; he is well known in Town and Country. This is therefore to forwarn all Perſons whatever, from harbouring, entertaining, employing or carrying off the Province either of the ſaid Slaves, as they ſhall anſwer the Contrary according to Law. I therefore offer a Reward of FIVE POUNDS each for PETER and MARIA, and TEN POUNDS for PRINCE; to be paid on delivery of them to the Warden of the Work-Houſe, or JAMES STREATER at Gooſe-Creek; and FIFTY POUNDS to any white Perſon that will prove where either of them is harboured, and TEN POUNDS to a Negro.

WILLIAM WOOD.

RUN AWAY from the Subſcriber,

A NEGRO FELLOW named TOM, of the Guiney Country, about five Feet eight Inches high, of a black Complexion, and ſpeaks but indifferent Engliſh; he had on when he went away in June laſt, a white Negro Cloth Jacket, and Crocus Trowſers; it is ſuppoſed he has travelled towards Orangeburg, where he formerly lived, and where he was twice taken laſt Year. Whoever delivers him to the Warden of the Work-Houſe, ſhall have TEN POUNDS reward, beſides reaſonable Charges; but, if Information is given of his being harboured, the whole Damages recovered from the Offender ſhall be paid to the Informer, by WILLIAM BURROWS.

Who has to Lett, a very good STABLE, with Stalls for two Horſes.
